

FORM 11 – IRISH NATIONALITY AND CITIZENSHIP ACT 1956

CTZ6

Application by a parent or guardian of, or person who is in loco parentis to a minor born in the state who did not at birth have an entitlement to Irish citizenship under Section 6A of the Act of 1956

A person who gives false or misleading information is guilty of an offence under the Act and liable to a fine and/or imprisonment. Giving false or misleading information may also result in an application being refused or, where a certificate of naturalisation has been granted, the revocation of that certificate.

Who is this form for?

- You should use this form if your child was born in the state after the 1st of January 2005, and your child was not entitled to citizenship at the time of their birth.

Please note

- If you resided in Ireland for three of the four years prior to the birth of your minor child you may apply for a passport for your child directly from the passport office. Please refer to <https://www.dfa.ie/passports-citizenship/how-to-apply-for-a-passport/> for details.

How to complete this form:

- Please complete this form using a black pen in CAPITAL letters and place a tick in the relevant box
- Answer ALL questions. If a question does not apply, put N/A as your answer. Use a black pen and PRINT IN BLOCK CAPITALS.
- Cross out any errors – Do not use correction fluid.
- We recommend you send your application by Registered Post
- Registered Post can be tracked on the An Post website www.anpost.ie

If your application is successful a certification fee of up to €200 may be payable by you, see the citizenship fees page on the Immigration Service Delivery website at <https://www.irishimmigration.ie/citizenship/> . If your application is refused you will be advised of the decision and, where appropriate, the reasons for refusal. There is no appeals process; however, you can re-apply at any time if you believe you meet the criteria.

Important – If your application is approved your child's Name, Nationality, Date and Country of Birth will be recorded on the certificate of naturalisation, This information will be as stated by you in your application. Please ensure the details you provide are correct. A certificate of naturalization cannot be amended.

1. Important - please note the following points:

Naturalisation is a privilege and not a right. The onus is on each applicant to disclose all information and evidence to help demonstrate that he or she satisfies the conditions for a certificate of naturalisation, including being of good character. The Minister is not obliged to give advance notice of adverse information of which the applicant is already aware. Should adverse information come to light in the course of the processing of the application which the applicant could reasonable foresee could be taken into account, the Department will not correspond with the applicant on the matter. However, such information will be taken into consideration in the decision making process.

You should be aware that citizenship legislation requires the publication of details of all persons granted a certificate of naturalisation, including name, address and date of issue of the certificate of naturalisation, in the official journal 'Iris Oifigiúil'. This is a legal requirement, there are no exceptions.

Applications where the applicant has a case pending in the court system will not be processed until the matter is concluded. Therefore do not submit an application for naturalisation until the case is closed.

Please note: Section 15 (3) of the Irish Nationality and Citizenship Act 1956, as amended, defines "applicant", in relation to an application for a certificate of naturalisation by a minor, as being the parent or guardian of, or person who is in loco parentis to, the minor.

Please post the fully completed form, fee and all required documentation to:

2. Online residency checker (not required in respect of EU/EEA Citizens):

An online residency checker is available to enable you to check if you satisfy the residency conditions for naturalisation before applying. You are required to use the Online Residency Checker, available at www.irishimmigration.ie/citizenship/. This will show whether you satisfy the naturalisation residency conditions and, if not, indicate how long you should wait before signing the Statutory Declaration and lodging the application. You are required to print a copy of the result and enclose it with your application. If an applicant does not have the full required residency at time of application their application can be deemed ineligible. Each application requires a €175 application fee, and ineligible applications cannot be refunded. Residency is calculated back from the date of application, which is the date you have signed the Statutory Declaration on the application form.

Statutory Declaration

A Statutory Declaration is a written Statement, declared to be true by you in the presence of an authorised witness. An authorised witness is a solicitor or commissioner for oaths or notary public or peace commissioner. By signing this Declaration you are stating that you understand the application form and that the facts provided in the application form are true and correct to the best of your knowledge.

You should complete boxes A1, A2 and A3 and your authorised witness should complete W1, W2, W3 (either W3.0, W3.1, W3.21, W3.22, W3.23, W3.24 or W3.25), W4, W5, W6, W7 and W8.

Important: When completing the Statutory Declaration, clearly print your full name as you stated it in section 1 of this form. Ensure that you sign and date the Statutory Declaration in the presence of the authorised witness and that the authorised witness signs and dates it in your presence. Check that the dates match before you post the application. ENSURE that the authorised witness has ticked the relevant box showing how the authorised witness has identified you. If you have identified yourself to the authorised witness by presentation of an identity document (such as a passport) you must provide a copy of that this document with your application.

Check that the correct date has been entered by both you and the authorised witness. If the Statutory Declaration is incorrect your application will be refused and the application fee will not be refunded.

Note regarding copies and certified copies:

- Where a certified copy is required, you must take your original certificates/documents to your solicitor, or a notary public, commissioner for oaths or peace commissioner and ask them to make a photocopy of each document and certify that it is a true copy of the original i.e. stamp and sign it "True copy of the original".
- If certificates/documents are not in English or Irish, a translation by a professional translator is required. A copy of the translation as well as the copy of the original document must be provided. Please note that we may also seek to establish the authenticity of documents submitted with authorities of the issuing country.

* Persons making an application for a certificate of naturalisation are required to provide satisfactory evidence of their identity and nationality. This is usually in the form of a currently valid passport and may include other original supporting documents, such as a previously held or out of date passport, and birth certificate. In rare circumstances where an applicant cannot produce their current passport, or a previous passport, birth certificate or other supporting documents the applicant will be required to provide a full explanation. Such explanation should be, where possible, be supported by satisfactory evidence that they have attempted to obtain such documentation and correspondence from the relevant authorities or embassy responsible for the issuing of passports and birth certificates in their country, clearly stating the reasons the documentation cannot be provided. Immigration Service Delivery will consider the explanation given and, if satisfied it is for reasons genuinely beyond the applicant's control, may suggest alternative means to the person to assist in establishing their identity and nationality.

 If you do not have your minor child's birth certificate you should get it from the relevant authorities in the country where your birth was registered before making an application for a certificate of naturalisation.

Use of Birth Affidavit

In certain limited and exceptional circumstances, a birth affidavit may be accepted in lieu of a Birth Certificate where you can show satisfactory evidence that the certificate is not available and cannot be obtained. If you are not in possession of, or have lost, your birth certificate, an affidavit will NOT be accepted. You must obtain it from the relevant authorities before applying.

Note regarding proofs of residence

For periods of employment/self-employment please submit:

- P60's (if employed) or Final Notice of Assessment (if self-employed) for all years of employment other than the current year.
- A letter on headed paper, from your current employer(s), showing your name, address and the date of commencement of employment.
- Three recent payslips.
- A Tax Clearance Certificate (if self-employed).

For periods of unemployment/studying please submit:
